Condo I President, Sarah Taylor, acknowledged that Cross Keys Village is evolving with many upgrades including; a new entrance to the Village, new roads, new landscaping and a remodeled gatehouse. Sotheby's Real Estate, Calvert Little School, Yves Delorme are just a few of the new retail/commercial spaces.

2021 accomplishments for 2021

- The Retaining wall behind Palmer Green north was the BOD's biggest accomplishment - This project was a challenge with permits from the city extremely difficult to obtain, and the pandemic slowing work down
- Court street signage was improved
- Many trees were removed and many trees were installed
- Increased lighting
- Scoping of pipes
- Many roofs completed
- Several concrete walls repaired and sidewalks fixed

Projected actions for 2022:

- The remaining roofs (21) will be completed in early Spring
- Dangerous Sidewalks will get repaired & curb cuts installed
- Painting of the houses, including trim work ;
- fencing corrected
- Website updates to be more streamlined and user-friendlier

Finance updates, Gail Mandell:

Treasurer

The BOD recommended a 3% increase in condo fees to offset inflation and to increase the reserve fund, as recommended in our reserve studies
The BOD unanimously voted to increase the fees

Reserve account

- Proposed Budget for 2022: $562,615.00
- Budget in 2021: $546,228.00
- The increase will bring in $16,387.00 in additional condo fees

Landscaping updates, Sally Wingo:

- Storm water management has been a primary focus of the committee
- Trees are dying and are being replaced.
- Boundaries between adjacent communities were established by Rod Petrick and Mike Grier
- Plantings were donated by homeowners at new signage

Social committee updates, Deborah Saunders:
